

MALAYSIAN OPEN, KUALA LUMPUR 2009
26. 9 - 4. 10. 2009 PUTRA STADIUM, BUKIT JALIL, KL

Things To Do in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

The Mandarin Oriental is a 5-star world-class hotel located in the centre of Kuala Lumpur, next to the KLCC Twin Towers and only 20 minutes from the tournament site.

It has excellent sports facilities including a gym, a swimming pool and 2 hard-courts. The hotel also has 6 amazing restaurants, serving up cuisines from the world over.

SURIA KLCC
ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW

Suria KLCC - shopping, entertainment and dining

Suria KLCC is Malaysia's premier shopping destination located next to the Mandarin Oriental. It offers six levels of shops, restaurants, cafes and entertainment

Suria KLCC is Malaysia's premier shopping destination and there is always something for everyone to enjoy!

Hours: Mon - Sun 10am to 10pm

Central Market (Night market)

This Art Deco Central Market was built in 1928 and was renovated in 1980's. It has 130 arts and crafts shops selling the usual T-shirts and souvenirs to traditional handicraft. It is also the place for local artists to demonstrate their skills and display their work. Some authentic Food outlets can be found as well as the tourist orientated eating places.

www.centralmarket.com.my

Hours: Mon - Sun 10am to 10pm

Petaling Street, China Town (Day and night market)

Kuala Lumpur's original Chinatown, where shopping is a whole new experience.

The shops are open throughout the day, but after 6pm, the Pasar Malam (night market) takes over, the road is closed to traffic and the street comes alive with stalls, restaurants and crowds.

This street is famous for its all-day parade of sidewalk stalls that sell imitation goods of all sorts from imitation handbags to souvenirs, watches, clothes, herbal remedies and local trinkets. Bargain hard! A must for everyone!

Skybridge Visits

The twin towers located next to the Mandarin Oriental are the tallest twin buildings in the world. The Skybridge between the two towers on 41st and 42nd floors is also the highest 2-story bridge in the world.

The Skybridge of Petronas Twin Towers is open to public visits.

Hours: Tues to Sun 9 am to 7 pm

Aquaria KLCC

The Aquaria KLCC is an underwater park located beneath the Convention Centre and close to the Mandarin Oriental.

Featuring 60,000 sq ft in two levels with a 90-metre long underwater tunnel, Aquaria KLCC houses over 250 different species, including different types of sharks, and aquatic animals from around the world. You can even adopt a turtle!

Kuala Lumpur Tower

Officially opened in August 1996, this 421m tower is reputed to be the highest in Asia and the fourth highest in the world. Visitors can enjoy a bird's eye view of the Federal Territory and the Klang Valley from its observation deck.

Sultan Abdul Samad Building

The building is beautiful blend of Victorian and Moorish architecture and is now the venue of the Supreme Court and the High Courts.

Kuala Lumpur's most photographed building, designed by British architect A.C. Norman, was built between 1894 and 1897 and was formerly the Secretariat building for the British administration.

